honey-glazed ham

■ ■ □ | Cooking time: 1 hour - Preparation time: 20 minutes

2. Using a sharp knife make several slits in the lamb. Push a little paste into each slit, then rub remaining paste over surface of lamb. Set aside to marinate for 20-30 minutes or in the refrigerator overnight.
3. Place onion, carrot, celery, wine and remaining garlic in a frying pan and cook, stirring, for 5 minutes.
4. Place lamb in a baking dish. Pour wine mixture into dish and bake at 180°C/350°F/Gas 4, adding more wine to keep vegetables moist if necessary, for 1½-2 hours or until lamb is cooked to your liking. Transfer lamb to a large serving platter and keep warm.
5. Skim fat from cooking juices in baking dish. Place juices with vegetables and garlic in a food processor or blender and process until smooth. Transfer mixture to a small saucepan, stir in stock and bring to the boil over a medium heat, reduce heat and simmer for 5 minutes or until sauce reduces and thickens and coats the back of a spoon. Stir in parsley and season to taste with black pepper. To serve, carve lamb and accompany with sauce.

tip from the chef

While this recipe uses a lot of garlic you will find that roasted garlic has a subtle and sweet flavor.

Scald remaining milk, stir a little into egg mixture, then gradually stir egg mixture into milk. Spoon filling into a piping bag fitted with a plain nozzle and pipe a little into each profiterol.
